

Katanning

The Lost Katanning website- <https://lostkatanning.com/> has been set up by Arthur Todd to preserve the history of Katanning since its inception and to give an idea of what life was like for those brave people who travelled into the middle of nowhere to set up home, raise a family, and develop Katanning into the thriving community it is today.

This site has lots of information and photos from the period.